MYSORE VILLAGE PANCHAYATS AND LOCAL BOARDS (AMENDMENT) BILL 1965.

Introduced.

Sri KONDAJJI BASAPPA (Deputy Minister for Co-operation).—Sir on behelf of the Hon'ble Minister for Co-operation Panchayat Raj and Denelopment, I beg to introduce the Mysore Village Panchayats and Local Boards (Amendment) Bill, 1965.

Mr. SPEAKER.—The Mysore Village Panchayats and Local Boards (Amendment) Bill, 1964, is introduced.

BANGALORE UNIVERSITY (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1965

(Motion to consider)

Sri S. R. KANTHI. (Minister for Education). I beg to move "That the Bangalore Univesity (Amendment) Bill, 1965, be taken in to consideration."

Mr. SPEAKER.—Motion moved.

"That the Bangalore University(Amendment) Bill. 1965, be taken into consideration.

†Sri S. R. KANTHI.—Sir, this is a very simple Bill. On account of certain difficulty the Bangalore University could not conduct examinations in its jurisdiction. So provision had to be made that the Mysore University may conduct the examinations till such time as the Bangalore Uuiversity is able to conduct its own examinations. This Bill seeks to replace the Ordinanee. The Ordince was promulgated on account of the fact that the two Houses were not in session. This is a very simpce Bill and I commend it for the consideration ofthe Housel.

†Sri S. M. KRISHNA (Maddur).—Sir, considering this Bill which has been moved by the Education Minister I do realise the difficulty of an institution like the Bangalore University which was founded a few months ago. It would not be right for us to expect the university to become a full fledged institution so as to be in a position to conduct examinations, Nonetheless, Sir, I regret very much to note that even though the Bangalore University came in to being under very auspicious circumstances, we were nursing a fond hope that at some stage or the other this University would be taken over by the Central Government and would be converted into a federal university. No doubt, a promise in I may claim it as such, was held out by the Union Education Minister while initiating the Bangalore University, but the promise was a conditional promise. He was categorical in his assurance to say that conversion of this university into a federal university would not come on a silver platter, but it would very much depend upon the way the
